RULE BOOK AND GUIDELINES (LOVE LITERARILY BY ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACTIVITIES CLUB)

Rules and Regulations-

- Love literarily is open to all college students.
- The events are composed of 3 activities namely Whats On My Mind?, OpenMic, Koffee with ELAC. Any student can participate in any number of activities.
- Registration is required to be done by google form.
- Rules of all the 3 activities are:

1. Whats on my mind:

- Team Size- Individual/ Group
- The objective of the game is for participants to guess a given word by asking 20 yes/no questions.
- Each participant will take turns asking questions. The participant whose turn it is to ask questions must do so in a clear and concise manner, and the answer to each question must be either "yes" or "no".
- Participants may not ask questions that could be answered with "maybe" or "sometimes".
- Questions may not be repeated, and participants must keep track of the questions they have already asked.
- If a participant believes they have correctly guessed the word, they must state their guess clearly and confidently. If the guess is incorrect, the participant must continue to ask questions until their 20 questions have been exhausted.
- The participant who correctly guesses the word first, or the participant who has used all 20 of their questions without guessing the word correctly, will be unqualified.
- The game will continue until all participants have had a turn, at which point a new word will be chosen and the game will start again.
- No foul language or offensive material is allowed.

2. Open Mic

- Participants are encouraged to share their original stories, poems, and life incidents with the audience.
- Each participant will be given a maximum of 10 minutes to recite their piece on stage.
- Participants must ensure that their material is appropriate for all ages and does not contain any foul language or offensive material.
- Plagiarism would lead to immediate disqualification.
- Best Entries list will be declared on our Instagram page and same will be updated through email on 15 th February 2023

3. Koffee with ELAC

- Participants will be divided into pairs, with each participant writing answers about their partner for a given question.
- Answers must be truthful and appropriate for all ages.
- Participants must keep their answers confidential and not reveal them to their partner before the game begins.
- The participants would then have to write and show their answers on the count of 3.
- If the answers match, they receive a point.

Judgment Criteria:

- Creativity
- Adherence to the time limit.
- Effectiveness
